

General Land Office.

Annual Report of the Acting Commissioner.

SUBMITTED TO SECRETARY NOBLE

A Number of suggestions and Recommendations Made by Commissioner Stone—More Help in the Office Will Be Asked For—Other Dispatches from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The annual report of the acting commissioner of the general land office, William M. Stone, has been submitted to the secretary of the interior. In opening his report Commissioner Stone refers to the accumulation of business in the office, which had been left over from former administrations and which was partly due to the increasing work of the local land offices.

The system in force, he says, was not preventive of the speedy dispatch of business, especially in the case of the board of review created by Commissioner Sparks, which by and by was a hindrance to good, safe and quick work in the office. "That said board of review," says the report, "did answer what would appear to have been a specific and defined purpose, namely, that of greatly hindering the determination of cases, causing their indefinite pendency in the general land office."

Commenting on Mr. Sparks' "unfortunate and unwarranted suspicions that a widespread system of fraud prevailed" and Mr. Sparks' assertion that "the proportion of fraudulent filings to the total number of filings made and relinquished may be estimated in round numbers at 100 per cent," Mr. Stone says: "This wholesale arraignment of claimants on the public domain should not have been made without the most conclusive evidence to sustain it."

The report goes on to say that no general misconduct on the part of the western settlers has been found. During the year 70,141 agricultural patents were issued, covering 11,791,110 acres of land, an increase over the preceding year of more than 3,000,000 acres. Mineral patents to the number of 913, covering an acreage of 13,000 were issued. There were patented for railroad rights the land 425,046 acres and under the swamp land grants to the states 259,721 acres. State selections under educational grants were approved to the extent of 122,350 acres and lands to Indians patented under various acts to the amount of 130,320. The total cash received from the sale of land and minerals was $2,270,225, a decrease of more than $3,000,000 as compared with the previous year, being the year 1887 and 1888, which, in my opinion, were grossly irregular, and a palpable usurpation of the powers and duties specially belonging to the commissioner of the general land office. The conditions under which these vouchers were issued were fully explained in the United Press dispatches a few weeks ago.

Commissioner Stone discussed at length the question of jurisdiction, and concludes that the first controller in considering the balance of special deposits amounting to $500,000, available for the payment of any balance due deputy surveyors was guilty of a clear violation of law, and overruled all previous practice of the two offices.

The report refers to the unsettled condition of private land claims in New Mexico and Arizona and the urgent need of congressional action to settle titles in these territories. Referring to the act of March 3, 1887, which authorizes the secretary of the interior to adjust each of the railroad grants, and if any have been erroneously certified or patented to commence proceedings to cancel them, the report states that of pending selections 31,609,811 acres have been suspended awaiting action by congress.

Attention is called to the fact that more than 80,000,000 acres of land have been claimed under the swamp land act in the various states, Florida alone, while having a total area of but 37,931,520 acres, having lists filed of 37,931,499 acres as swamp lands. "There can be no doubt," says the report, "that large quantities of land amounting to millions of acres have been patented to the state erroneously as swamp lands; in fact they were and are good agricultural lands."

The work of examining ex-parte mineral entries is said to be two and a half years in arrears. The report recommends that when a homestead or pre-emption claimant receives a patent and mineral is discovered subsequently on its claim, his certificate of entry is all set aside as a bar to any mining claim upon a discovery made subsequent to the entry.

The report recommends the repeal of all laws relating to public timber and the enactment of a general law, plain, concise and unmistakable in meaning. Fewer fraudulent entries have been made during the year than for many years past, owing to increased vigilance, but several cases are mentioned in the report where syndicates sought to obtain coal lands by fraudulent means, and in one case, had they succeeded, the commission alone would have amounted to $500,000. The opening of Oklahoma is referred to as the most important event for several years in the administration of the land office.

Congress is asked to provide fifteen new clerks to preserve the records of land titles in the office books.

On that day the crew manifested and the vessel remained in the harbor until the 13th. The inspector says "that on making his second inspection he found that one of the sailors was sick and showed symptoms of yellow fever, and he so stated in his bill of health. The vessel proceeded to sea with the sick man on board."

THE CRONIN CASE.

The Work of Selecting a Jury About One-Half Accomplished.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The work of selecting a jury in the Cronin case was resumed at 10 o'clock. The first proceeding was the examination by the state of the four jurors held over night, and Henry Sproull was dismissed on a peremptory challenge. The state's attorney examined E. H. Ingram, a printer, and tendered Church, Patterson, Boggess and Ingram to the defense. Boggess was found by Mr. Forrest to have a prejudice against the accused and was challenged for cause. Church, Patterson and Ingram also acknowledged having prejudices, or an opinion, and were also excused. With these men disposed of, Mr. Forrest tried to find four men to take their places. The defense then, after examining nine takers, accepted four—Reese, Shafer, Kohans and Lowe—and tendered them to the state.

The state's attorney's examination resulted in Mr. Lowe being excused for being opposed to capital punishment. Shafer and Kohans were excused because they would not inflict the death penalty on circumstantial evidence. Reese was accepted temporarily by the state. The work of examining takersmen was then resumed by the state.

In the afternoon the state tendered Messrs. Southward, Mount, Bowman and Legend to the defense. Bowman was passed temporarily, and Southward excused for cause, when the court adjourned.

FIRE IN KANSAS CITY.

Two Men Fatally Injured and a Fire Chief Slightly Hurt.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 20.—Fire last night entirely destroyed the Kansas City Descending and Refining works at Kansas City, Kan. Loss, $75,000; insurance, $41,000. During the progress of the fire Joe Estabrocker, an employee, jumped from a second story window, and John Halpern, jumped from the roof. Both sustained fatal injuries.

The Kansas City, Mo., fire department was summoned to aid in preventing the fire from spreading. While Chief Hale, of the Kansas City, Mo., fire department, was directing his men from the roof some one carelessly removed a ladder, and when he found it necessary to descend, he was compelled to slide down the hose. When about half way down the hose broke in two at the roof where it had been melted by the flames, and Hale fell a distance of fifteen feet to the ground. He was slightly injured. Chief Hale, of the Kansas City, Kan., fire department, was thrown from his horse and badly bruised.

Two Hostile Camps.

Catholics and Orangemen Arranged Against Each Other.

A BLOODY OUTBREAK FEARED.

The Town of Dungannon, County Tyrone, Ireland, is in a Perfect Frenzy of Excitement Over a Political Controversy. Other News From Over the Ocean.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The little town of Dungannon, County Tyrone, Ireland, is in a perfect frenzy of excitement, and every man, woman and child in the place is ranged on one side or the other of a heated political controversy, in which, too, nearly the whole surrounding country seems disposed to take a hand.

Nearly a week ago a number of English Liberals, who are traveling through Ireland with the view of studying the Home Rule question on the native soil, interested themselves to organize in Dungannon a public meeting in the interests of Home Rule, the date of which was fixed for last night. For nearly a whole week the fact that such a meeting was to be held was well known to everybody in County Kome, and not a word of objection came from the police. Last night, however, Market square, where the meeting was to have been held, was filled with armed police, and placards were posted prohibiting the meeting.

This action of the authorities excited the most intense indignation among those in sympathy with the objects of the meeting, and a deputation of the Englishmen who were chiefly instrumental in organizing it called upon the magistrate to protest against this attack upon the right of free speech. They were told that the meeting had been proclaimed because it seemed certain that if it were permitted bloodshed would result, as the Orangemen proposed to organize a counter meeting, and a stone-throwing war in case the Home Rulers assembled.

Dungannon is divided into two hostile camps, the Catholics and the Orangemen taking every opportunity to hurl defiance at one another. Up to this time no more serious consequences are reported than a few broken heads, the result of isolated disturbances, but as feelings run very high and the police are nearly all concentrated on the scene of the proclaimed meeting, news from that point is awaited with considerable anxiety.

A Welcome to Premier Crispi.

Replying to the address of welcome and an address congratulating him upon his recovery from his recent illness, Signor Crispi spoke feelingly of his old love for Naples, the glorious city by the sea, and of their united efforts in 1848, successful by the aid of God, to obtain their liberties.

Knight, another of the passengers of the yacht Lea, which left Lorain for Cleveland Sunday afternoon, and which was wrecked by the explosion of her boiler, was washed ashore about noon yesterday. Four bodies have now been recovered. Five are still missing.

AN AVALANCHE OF ROCKS.

Fifty People Crushed to Death and Many Others Injured.

QUEBEC, Sept. 20.—Last night a large portion of Cape Diamond, below the citadel, became detached and sliding down, buried a number of houses beneath a mass of rock and dirt. A number of dead bodies have been taken from the ruins, but the total loss of life is not known. A number of persons, more or less injured, were quickly rescued. It will be hours before any comprehensive idea of the number of the dead can be arrived at, as some of the houses are under twenty-five feet of debris.

At the foot of the cliff is a narrow street which occupies all of the space between the cape and the river. Along the river side of this street was situated the houses which were crushed by the terrible avalanche of rock.

In May, 1841, a similar land-slide occurred, which destroyed several buildings and killed thirty-two people. From recent indications it is feared the loss of life by this landslide will be equally as great.

In 1852 another slide caused the death of several persons, about a half mile from the scene of the present disaster. The street is entirely filled with the wreckage, and a large force of men are at work clearing it away. Several families are known to have been entombed, and it is feared that all are dead.

Up to 11:30 o'clock six bodies had been taken from the ruins—Thomas Farrell and two of his children, also two children named Burke, and one unknown child. Farrell's mother-in-law, Mrs. Allen, and her husband are still in the ruins.

About twenty-five persons have been removed from the debris very badly injured. Some have broken arms and legs, others badly crushed and mutilated.

It is now estimated that at least fifty persons are yet under the ruins. The fire brigade and police force are on the ground rendering valuable assistance. All the injured were removed to the marine and fisheries departments, where medical men and clergymen looked after them.

The debris covers the road in a solid mass for over 300 feet in length, and from fifteen to twenty-five feet in height.

It is impossible to say at present how many are dead and wounded. Every one is working heroically. Cries of "Help! help!" are heard from beneath the debris, but none can be given.

The body of a woman named Mrs. Keegan has just been pulled out of the debris. Tons of rocks are falling, and it is feared the whole boulder forming the highest point of Quebec will give way.

Thirteen dead and sixteen badly injured have been taken out so far. It will take several days to recover all. The damage will exceed $100,000. Officers of the royal school with a large force of cavalry are coming to aid in rescuing the injured. Six hundred men are now at work. The blood and dust make a sickening spectacle.

ELOPED WITH A PRINCESS.

A Chicago Man Skips Out with a Relative of King Malietoa.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 20.—Monday morning a company of natives of the Samoan islands opened an engagement at the dime museum. The party consisted of nine men, one woman and one child. The woman was comely looking, about 22 or 23 years of age, and claimed to be related to King Malietoa, of the Samoan islands. She gave out that she was a princess of the island, and that her name was Si-lani. At the time the king was deposed by the Germans she left for San Francisco to be educated.

There she remained until about three weeks ago, when she was engaged by one of the natives to go with him to the United States on an exhibition tour through the country. Some afterward she opened in Chicago. While there an American by the name of J. S. Cotterell, fell violently in love with her, followed her to this city and yesterday eloped with her. They are supposed to have gone to San Francisco as she has been desirous of returning to her native land since Malietoa is again in authority.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—A cable dispatch was received at the state department yesterday from Consul Allen, at Kingston, Jamaica, stating that a riot had occurred at Navassa, in which a number of Americans were killed. At the request of the consul a British warship left Jamaica immediately for the scene of the difficulty. The dispatch contained no particulars.

The state department immediately informed the Secretary of the Navy, and the latter ordered to St. Nicholas Mole, Haiti, the cable tug Galena, which is cruising in those waters, to repair immediately to Navassa. Admiral Gherardi is on the Galena. Navassa is a Guano island owned by Gen. B. F. Butler and an American company. It is about 250 miles from Kingston. Though under no particular jurisdiction it is looked upon as being under the protection of the United States, and is inhabited chiefly by Americans.

A Murder and Suicide at Windsor, Ontario.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 20.—About 11 o'clock yesterday morning a man and woman were found dead in Donigall's nursery, where they had been seen sitting two hours previously. The woman was shot through the heart and the forehead from which blood was oozing. Papers on his person showed him to be Silas Densmore, of Rushville, Ind. The woman was probably his wife. A revolver with two chambers empty was found near the corpses. The grass in the vicinity appeared as if some one had taken hold of it with both hands and pulled it convulsively, but no other traces of a struggle of any sort were found. The clothes of the dead people contained only three cents in money and a few unimportant papers. The man was apparently 37 years old and the woman about 20 years old.

A Circus Train Wrecked.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 20.—As the circus train of Forepaugh's show was on the way from Marshalltown to Oklaheka yesterday, a serious accident occurred near Seabrook. The train carrying the most expensive baggage broke while going down a long grade on the Iowa Central road, and the engine seeing the trouble stopped the engine. A collision resulted, in which two cars were tele-scoped and the cages containing lions and one other animal and a hand-saw were hurled to pieces. The animals were unhurt and did not get away, but one canvasman had his arm broken, and another had four ribs crushed. Forepaugh estimates his loss at $20,000.

No More Relief Expected.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 20.—Governor Beaver has written a lengthy letter to Mr. M. M. Forepaugh in which he declines to appoint a representative from the West Branch valley to the state food commission to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Ganamin, which was petitioned by a large number of our influential citizens recently. The governor stated that it would now be inexpedient to appoint a new man inasmuch as the labors of the committee are very nearly finished. This part of the state will therefore receive no more financial help from the balance of money now at the disposal of the commission.

MARION AND NATURAL GAS

Let the council and the citizens of Marion visit Upper Sandusky's wonderful gas well, if they are uncertain of what to do on the gas question. Let them hear the roar of the monster, whose mighty breath comes hissing out in the wildest imaginable fury, as though the natural gas was enraged at having been disturbed. Then stand near the rushing torrent and gaze awe-stricken, upon the leaping flame as it darts heavenward in harmony with the mad rush of gas, and we promise an inspiration that will immediately lead to the desired explorations in Marion's behalf.

To one unused to such a scene it is simply awful—in the grander sense of that word. One stands amazed, transfixed with wonder. Imagine if you can fifty heavy railroad trains racing through the country, side by side, and you form an impression of the mighty roar of the escaping gas. Within two hundred feet of it you are deafened, and four miles away it is as distinct as the noise of a passing freight train not a furlong away. Any words at our command fail to adequately describe the great well, much less to portray one's feelings as he contemplates the monster and nature's handiwork in producing it. It is an inspiring scene, and this is why we say the question will be settled for Marion if our citizens and council once see it.

It is doubtful if Marion will make any further researches with private capital. The popular plan is for the city to take hold of the matter. The necessary expenditure for a thorough research of the Marion field will not be so heavy but that the equal assessment by taxation will not be felt, and the research must be made. Marion is a rattling good town and she has been keeping up her pace with rapid neighbors, but the advantages of natural gas are not to be ignored. We must have it to keep our gait.

Within reach of Marion a little has been found, and the Upper Sandusky theory that "where there is little there is more" must be our encouragement to seek it. Let us be up and doing, and keep Marion in the front rank of the inland cities of Ohio.

It is hope is the main spring of happiness those who occupy the hard chairs at Music Hall during the amusement season, and shiver through performances, had well reap all the happiness there is in hoping that some one will build an opera house or another season. Music Hall should have fulfilled its usefulness as a temporary structure long ago.

The man who assume the protective tariff in behalf of the workman should observe that the members of the Scripps League delegation of American workmen just returned from Europe testify to this, "that American workmen are better housed, better fed, better paid, better clothed and generally better off than their European fellows." This testimony is unbiased.

Recent advices from China bring the news of a terrible catastrophe in which 10,000 people lost their lives by the overflow of a river. This country, in the light of the Conemangh disaster, can now for the first time in our history appreciate the horror of such an occurrence as is briefly outlined in the telegraphic dispatches from the Orient.

STEVENS' preliminary canvass for political honors, at his home the other day, was very characteristic and pugilistic, too. John L. took a bucket of paint along with which to make things crimson, and he at least succeeded in disgusting many people who came in contact with him. O, yes, Samly ought to go to Congress!

At ten much difficulty four men have found who are sufficiently ignorant to sit on the Cronin jury. If the other eight are as hard to find there will yet be weeks of waiting for a full panel. The jury law is so wonderfully made as to detect the amount of general intelligence in communities.

GREYER natural gas developments have been predicted for Ohio this fall than ever before, and some of our neighboring towns are likely to experience some pretty lively booms. Will Marion be in the consume, or can she keep up with the procession at her old gait of general enterprise?

Drivers of express wagons, hacks and all other vehicles should remember that it doesn't look well to hurry pedestrians over street crossings. Foot passengers have the right of way, and there is danger, too, of serious accident without some caution on the part of drivers.

The campaign will soon be coming along quite lively, so lively that it will be difficult to distinguish the aggressive party. See, what are the issues—Forakerisms, English beer trusts, etc., with a sprinkling of tariff?

UPPER SANDUSKY'S GREAT WELL.

A Description of the Great Gusher from Col. Geo. B. Christian's Pen—The Resulting Comforts and Growth that Will Come to Repay Their Pluck and Persistence.

Marion went to Upper Sandusky on Thursday. Our business men wished very much to see the noted gas metropolis that is and is to be.

There is no prettier home town in Ohio than our neighbor of the plains, and Thursday was a day born of the sun god, an ideal balmy, breezy day of early autumn, to see it and look it over. See it we did. There was an afternoon for the fair, with the droll pumpkin and the yellow corn, unhonored and unused, while the lively "boss race," with Marion "losses" always to the fore, drew the crowd. Marion did its fair share of yelling for the Marion colors. There were pretty Wyandot maidens and, dare I say it, prettier matrons in schools as it were, at the grand stand or promenade under the fine old trees that make the Wyandot grounds comfortable, and the maidens (not the matrons) snailed and flirted with our handsome lads; and so with races, and dirling, and the tooting of what Roscoe Concklin called a blankety-blank-blank, old brass band, the afternoon wore on apace. With the lengthening of the shadows, to 5 p.m., and with a sigh of regret Marion's men departed for the noted gasser.

Five vehicles carried the party. Out north along the Carey road we moved in fine, comfortable shape, to the Wm. Gibson farm, where is located the now famous and world-known village of Upper Sandusky's gas well, No. 6. As to location, draw a line as the crow flies from the temple of justice in the city to the well and you will have a line almost, if not quite, four miles long, exactly parallel with the U. S. V. and T. railroad, about one and one-half miles east of south of Lovell Station. The country is a gentle, undulating plain, under fine cultivation, and thoroughly drained, occupied by thrifty farmers to whom the coming of natural gas will be but one degree of added comfort.

Approaching the well from the southeast there came to the ear, borne upon the autumn air, a low, quivering hum; it is a strange peculiar sound. Some one suggested a bee hum; it is pitched in a higher key. It is livelier and while there is no whistle, it is shriller. High pressure dry steam in free escape gives a similar sound under special and not often heard conditions.

But let us proceed. We arrive at the well at six.

In the edge of a wood pasture, a furlong west of Farmer Gibson's residence, the new strange earth force is found. The derrick looms up in the shadows, eighty feet high; beneath it protrudes the six inch, securely packed and anchored pipe and casing of the well; for the lion is now engaged. The gas flows directly into a pressure regulator and out oil valve, at a direct pressure of more than 500 pounds to the square inch; a four-inch outlet pipe conducts the gas, when flowing, to a point on the ground some five hundred feet west. At this point carefully stayed and guyed, a four-inch stand-pipe, sixty feet high is uplifted. From the mouth of this the freed gas escapes and its friction in escape produces the volume of sound. The noise of the escaping gas can be heard without much effort any ordinary quiet night, a distance of five miles, under the most favorable atmospheric conditions it has been entitled by favorable winds a distance of eight and even ten miles. When lighted it forms a torch, beginning ten feet from the pipe end, extending, apparently, sixty-five feet into the air. It is claimed by experts that the flame, as seen in darkness, is actually one hundred feet in length of volume.

Stripped of all exaggeration the well is a wonderful exhibition of nature's unknown and remarkable forces. And what a boon to Upper Sandusky. This village in its history of explorations for natural gas could produce volumes.

This well, coming from a depth of thirteen hundred feet, overthrows all theory, and is the result of pluck, luck and stubborn German determination and persistence.

Through trials and many tribulations, has come this splendid well and bow of promise for the future of the town. The city owns and holds with a strong, steady, unparehasable grip seven thousand acres of gas land in lease.

This empuie of gas is for itself, no Standard Oil Devil Fish can take it away; no selfish greed of capital can fleth it from its people. It is to be, barring actual expense of piping, free as air and plentiful as water. It will brighten the home of labor as a blessing of the Lord; it will give a richer fruit to the joys of wealth; it will turn wheels and create the electric spark; and the hum and whirl of a city of wealth will come to the parties as sure as if the waterpower of St. Anthony's Falls was turned from its accustomed channel to Upper Sandusky. Such and this we of Marion saw, heard and declared it to be, as we stood in the glare of the well beacon that was flashing its light rays above us, to points twenty-five miles away last evening.

To Col. Avery Henderson, our general manager; to the board of gas trustees; to the men of the old gas company, in fact to all Upper Sandusky, we were indebted for kindness, courtesy and gracious treatment.

Geo. B. Christian.

Circuit Court.

Though Circuit Court has been in session all the week there have been few decisions rendered.

The ditch cases of Commissioners vs. Morrow and Roberts, et al. were remanded to the Common Pleas Court for trial after reversing the decision of the court below in dissolving the injunctions.

The Goose Creek case has ended so far in a victory for the opponents to the improvement, the Circuit Court having sustained its chamber decision, which reversed Judge Price's decision dissolving the injunction. This leaves a permanent injunction against the commissioners going on with the ditch unless the Supreme Court shall dissolve the injunction.

The trial of the water works case will take place Saturday, the plaintiff having filed an amended petition.

Latrine.

Our people were greatly disappointed on Tuesday when the rain set aside the Scott Town meeting. I never witnessed a more general feeling to attend a political meeting. Democrats were going to turn out; all wanted to hear Foraker. This is creditable. We should look after our public men, weigh them and, if found wanting, remember them at the ballot box. We are all interested in our government, state and national; we all want a prosperous country and the true policy of the government carried out. Our duty then is to endeavor to understand the history of our country and the true policy of the government, then to elect as our agents to legislate and carry out this policy men who are competent, industrious and honest, who possess proper qualifications to do the duties falling upon them. If we were looking for a mechanic or help of any kind this would be our rule. We may learn much by hearing a statesman discuss government policy and time spent in this way is not lost. Let us do more thinking, more reading and more observing and we will be better judges as to our duty when we cast our ballots for public servants; more we will not be as likely to be misled by dishonest tricksters and demagogues who may aspire to high places in our government. As for political parties let us take the past, history and policy of parties into consideration, not depend upon promises and platitudes—promises are easily broken and platitudes too. If a new party springs up claiming great purity and wonderful interest in the welfare of the people, trace up the membership and their former homes before placing much confidence in their pretensions or great worth. Weigh and test them before trusting them. The greatest demagogues of the age profess great purity and honesty of purpose; ascertain what their success in life has been thus far before taking much stock. But to the subject of this paragraph, again. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a hydra poured into Latrine, come ten miles, accompanied by marsh mud, and Latrine rallied and soon a large procession would have been on its way to Scott Town had not word come that the meeting had been postponed. If the Scott Town rally is renewed let us all attend. I hope Gov. Foraker may be able to come to this county at least once, and if he does there will be a large turnout. We feel proud that this brilliant, true and great statesman is an Ohio man.

My daughter is convalescing slowly, but is not by any means yet out of danger.

Some cases of sickness scattered about, but the change in the weather is favorable to health.

The young man whom I referred to in my last letter as being badly hurt is getting over his injuries, I learn.

Miss Emma Hopkins spent a part of this week with us. Her presence was very acceptable. Mrs. McKelvy and Samuel Hopkins, also.

D. H. Clifton is talked of as Republican candidate for auditor. Dave would make a creditable race and, if elected, a good and faithful auditor.

It is time that land appraiser candidates were being looked up. Remember, we want first class, reliable men, those possessing a general knowledge of the localities and the value of real estate. We can't be too careful in our selection of candidates. Men who have been honest and successful in their business is the kind we want to fill this place. Their assessments last for ten years.

Chlorion-Adeleite.

Miss Olie Campbell, of Chlorion, is visiting at W. S. Aye's.

C. C. Owen left Thursday night last for Chicago to attend a course of lectures at the Chicago homeopathic medical college.

Little Calbie Miller fell last Tuesday and suffered a severe sprain of the elbow joint.

Wesley Adam's horse, attached to a cart, broke loose on Friday last and ran home, but fortunately did no serious damage.

Dr. Jackson, of Edison, drove over to Mr. Howser's on Wednesday last to see Mrs. C. R. Mozier, who, we are glad to say, is rapidly improving.

Emerson Haley while driving home the other evening had his luggey smashed up by a collision with a wagon.

Miss Dee, of Marion, who has been stopping at the Dr. Devore's, returned to her home on Thursday of this week.

Quite a number of people of this vicinity went to Knox county for peaches.

There has been two arrivals since my last, a boy at Frank Fletcher's and a boy at Joe Mitchell's, one Democrat and one Republican.

Christian Moutz, residing south of Chlorion, sustained a severe injury by being kicked in the face by a horse on Tuesday last. Dr. Britton attended him and reports him doing well.

Wm. Clifton is teaching the fall term of our school.

Celestia.

The recent rains seem to have added to the joy and happiness of the farmers, giving them an opportunity to plant their fall crops. The wind, however, broke off much of the corn, the ground in places being too hard to allow the stalks to bend.

Prot. Leo Earl, the tight rope walker, put in an appearance on Saturday, but change was rather scarce and he soon left for richer fields.

Harry Cooper is kept busy between shakes in passing bouquets from his beautiful garden to the ladies.

Ed Margaret, our young minister, left Monday morning for Tufts College, Mass. He has been in attendance five years and will finish his course in two more, then will go to Germany to couple his ministerial studies.

Mrs. Smith, of Mt. Gilead, and her daughter, May, were visiting friends here Sunday.

Sam'l McManahan, a deaf mute of Findlay, spent Sunday with Frank Lee. Master Frank understands the mute language, and made his visit a pleasant one.

The stone masons are busily engaged in building the new abutments at the Big Four bridge.

Mrs. George Beckley was taken seriously ill Monday night.

John Hanley was a new clerk, Mike O'Connor having resigned.

The Union week sports a sign of "The Big 5" since the school election. It was a present of some thought marander.

Will we get the desired extension of the pike through town? Let us give a little of our school to the pike.

September 20. CLIP.
[This letter also contained a very cutting and well written answer to Prof. Ranck and "Rebel," of the district. The extreme length and late arrival of the epistle prevents its being printed in this issue. It is an over-tax to our columns at any time. Judging impartially to its distance, we think the school controversy should end. There may be grounds for the reply to Mr. Ranck and "Rebel," but the length of the article will have to be changed.—Ed. S. V.]

Big Head Land Deal.

Messrs. Haber, Chase & Hunter have purchased 53 acres within the corporation on the east, formerly owned by Francis Gooding, of Pleasant Township. This is one of the finest dwelling sites in the city, as the same is located on a beautiful rise of ground and might justly be termed, in comparison with surrounding lands, "Little Mountain." Wild rumor has it, although we are not officially informed, that the proprietors intend to plat it at once into residence lots and pleasure grounds, and that Mt. Vernon avenue, that a beautiful park with an artificial lake in the midst will grace the eastern slope of the "Little Mountain," with a scenic drive and all the latest attractions of a fashionable watering place. It is further hinted that gas will be obtained in paying quantities from wells to be drilled upon the plateau beyond the beautiful Quocqua valley, at the foot of this elevation of the far seeing proprietors.

The sign of Erysipelas has shown itself and I heartily recommend it to suffering

Knocked Out!

Sullivan is a knocker, but it took eighty-seven rounds to knock out Kilrain. But we knocked out the first round. That's what we did, and that's what we did. That's what we propose to do. When we offer good goods and fine goods, and plenty of them, and the cash don't come, we know there is a mugger in the woodpile, and

HIS NAME IS PRICE!

Then we go for the mugger and trim him off a little, that's our style, and it counts. Now we can strike you on all points, and we will strike you right. We knocked Price down, now we want to that you cannot buy groceries cheaper any place in Marion than at Harraman & Son's.

THREE BLOCK.

We Have Decided!

For more than one year we have been trying to decide whether to continue handling a mixed up line of Stoves and Ranges and to buy of any agent that comes along with something cheap and imperfect to sell at buyers' price, or whether to handle a first-class line EXCLUSIVELY. The latter is the largest, oldest, best and most complete line trader in this line, and make the standard goods in America for fifty years! Over one million in use! What does it mean? THEY HAVE NO EQUAL!

OUR DECISION!

The Acorn Line,

In handling one line exclusively is that we can at all times furnish repairs at the store, thereby saving express charges and delay.

Our aim is to sell good goods for the least money. To sell a good article you are praised. To sell a poor one you are forever cursed. A poor stove is expensive at any price.

Yours Respectfully,
S. S. FOX & CO.

—We open our immense—
NEW FALL STOCK!

But Here Is ANOTHER FACT:

We are doing the shoe business of Marion, and the reason is quality for quality. We are UNDERSELLING all others, you therefore cannot afford to spend a cent for shoes without seeing this the largest stock of
